

1. Where did you go to school?
 - a. I spent two wonderful years at the University of New Hampshire playing for their Division 1 soccer team, studying Psychology and Spanish before heading overseas to Spain in 2002. Upon return to the United States, I finished my BA in Spanish and Brazilian Portuguese with a French minor at the University of Arizona – where I also studied German, Italian and Irish-Gaelic.
2. Where were you born and where all did you live?
 - a. I was born in upstate New York, in Rome. I have been fortunate to live all over the country though: St Peters, MO - in the suburbs of St Louis; Tucson, AZ for the final two years of high school and again four years during college; Durham, NH for two years; and Barcelona, Spain for 6 months.
3. Tell us a little about your family.
 - a. I was married to my wife, Stephanie, on May 31, 2008. We decided to hold off on our honeymoon for a while and just went to the Dominican Republic a few months ago. We have a beautiful little girl, Xylia Anne. Xylia was born on June 15, 2007 and is the absolute apple of my eye. She is definitely a chatterbox and I affectionately refer to her as Xy Xy.
4. What are your interests/hobbies?
 - a. Soccer has always been a huge part of me. I still enjoy playing it and watching it on TV. I love attending live music events, playing with my daughter at the park and spending time outdoors.
5. What is your favorite TV show?
 - a. How I Met Your Mother is by far my favorite show.
6. What was your first job?
 - a. First job was taking orders from Gene and Dwight at Pueblo Airmotive back in 1998. Toilets are clogged? Take care of it. Floors need mopped? Take care of it. Out of college I spent a semester as a high school French teacher before breaking into the Aviation industry.
7. What is your favorite book?
 - a. The Sun Also Rises by Ernest Hemingway.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bradley Elmer". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

